

EASTER, 2018

Be not affrighted:
Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth,
which was crucified: he is risen;
he is not here: behold the place
where they laid him.

MARK 16:6

Dear Friends,

When the dead body of Jesus was placed in the tomb, people figured, "Well, that's that. He's dead." The Roman officials and Jewish council members were relieved at his death. Jesus' family and followers were heart-broken, of course.

Then, God raised Jesus. Everyone was surprised! New life is a surprise. Resurrection is a surprise; "then" is a surprise.

The message of Easter is that, for God, there is always new life, resurrection, and "then". It may be different than we anticipated, but there is always something new. Resurrection follows death. It is this hope that gives us courage and strength.

May your Easter be joyful and hopeful.

Sincerely,

The Rev. Albert A. Jennings

April Prayer

Gracious God, in the busy-ness of my day, I sometimes forget to stop to thank you for all that is good in my life. My blessings are many & my heart is filled with gratefulness for the gift of living, for the ability to love & be loved, for the opportunity to see the everyday wonders of creation, for sleep & water, for a mind that thinks & a body that feels.

I thank you, too, for those things in my life that are less than I would hope them to be. Things that seem challenging, unfair, or difficult. When my heart feels stretched & empty, & pools of tears form in my weary eyes, still I rejoice that you are as near to me as my next breath & that in the midst of turbulence, I am growing & learning. In the silence of my soul, I thank you most of all for your unconditional & eternal love.

Amen.

Holy Week Special Readings

Everyone is welcome to sign up to read a role for the Gospel Narratives for Palm Sunday and Good Friday. Some roles have as few as 2-4 lines.

Easter Vigil has 4 Old Testament lessons and are all are welcome to sign up for these readings, also.

On March 18, Brad Purdom, from the diocese, came to give the Sunday sermon and speak to us after the worship service about Evangelism for Episcopalians. We had an opportunity to ask questions and to share our thoughts. The topics he spoke about were as follows:

- * Personal Evangelism begins with understanding that we don't bring God to people, we talk with people to help them discover a God who is already present in their lives.
- * How do I pray about evangelism?
- * How do I prepare for evangelism?
- * Exercises in Personal Evangelism

More details will follow in the future Tidings.

Mother's Day Bake Sale

May 12 will be our third annual Mother's Day Bake Sale! With each year we have grown our success with what is becoming a very stable fundraiser for St. Timothy's. We will need our outstanding bakers signing up to provide cakes, pies, quiches, muffins, pastries, bar cookies, and cupcakes. We are leaving cookies off of the list because we already have a Christmas cookie sale. Bakery boxes with doilies will gift wrap the bakery to be given to mom or a special woman. A sign up sheet will be provided at church. If you would like to sign up on line Catherine Gouldlock will be setting this up for the first time for us to try. Flyers will be available to take to help us advertise the sale. We will also continue to promote our sale with the Nordonia Hills

Garden Club Plant Sale being held on the same day. A BIG thank you to all of you who did baking last year. We had a wonderful selection of beautiful baked goods. Our hope is to be able to offer the same variety this year.

DEACON'S REFLECTIONS

“Beloved of God.” She said that to me as she tore a piece of pita bread and gave me communion. I was serving as one of the deacons at the Evangelism Matters Eucharist and “she” is the Rev. Stephanie Spellers, Canon to the Presiding Bishop for Evangelism and Reconciliation. Those words caught me off guard – she called me “beloved” without knowing that I’m certainly not perfect and even yelled at a driver on my way to the church!

Her words got me thinking: is it only people who come to church and receive communion who are Beloved of God? Jesus certainly looked wider than his inner circle. So I decided to try something: running errands, I decided to consider everyone I encountered as Beloved of God. The cashier at the pet store with a mohawk and pierced temple; the woman at the fabric store as she cut off ½ yard from the bolt. Part of me wanted to say, “thank you, Beloved of God,” but I figured I’d freak them out, so I settled for silent reflection.

The fabric is for an orange stole I’m making, to wear on the upcoming march against gun violence. “Beloved of God” has widened my circle to the point where others become extended family. The family is suffering: abused kids; people in poverty; those you’ve asked me to pray for; parents of teen shooting victims. I’m going to march for all the “Beloveds,” praying that no more of the family are shot. I hope they’d do the same for me.

Anne

RECIPE CORNER

20 Minute Honey Garlic Shrimp

yield: SERVES 4    prep time: 15 MINUTES    total time: 20 MINUTES

Ingredients:

- 1/3 cup honey
- 1/4 cup soy sauce (I use reduced sodium)
- 1 Tablespoon minced garlic
- optional: 1 teaspoon minced fresh ginger
- 1 lb medium uncooked shrimp, peeled & deveined<sup>1</sup>
- 2 teaspoons olive oil
- optional: chopped green onion for garnish

Directions:

1. Whisk the honey, soy sauce, garlic, and ginger (if using) together in a medium bowl.
2. Place shrimp in a large zipped-top bag or tupperware. Pour 1/2 of the marinade mixture on top, give it all a shake or stir, then allow shrimp to marinate in the refrigerator for 15 minutes or for up to 8-12 hours. Cover and refrigerate the rest of the marinade for step 3. (Time-saving tip: while the shrimp is marinating, I steamed broccoli and microwaved some quick brown rice.)
3. Heat olive oil in a skillet over medium-high heat. Place shrimp in the skillet. (Discard used marinade<sup>2</sup>.) Cook shrimp on one side until pink-- about 45 seconds-- then flip shrimp over. Pour in remaining marinade and cook it all until shrimp is cooked through, about 1 minute more.
4. Serve shrimp with cooked marinade sauce and a garnish of green onion. The sauce is excellent on brown rice and steamed veggies on the side.

Recipe Notes:

1. You can remove the tail or leave it on. Whatever's easiest!
2. Using leftover marinade is a debated topic. While you could boil it to rid any contamination, the flavor could possibly change. But do what you'd like. Usually I just make a little extra (like we do here) to use as the sauce.

OVERNIGHT BLUEBERRY FRENCH TOAST

Requested from ECW Brunch Meeting

- 12 slices day old bread, cut into 1 inch cubes
- 1 (8 oz.) package cream cheese, cut into 1 inch cubes
- 1 C. fresh blueberries
- 12 eggs, beaten
- 2 C. milk
- 1 tsp. vanilla extract
- 1/3 C. maple syrup
- 1 C. sugar
- 2 T. cornstarch
- 1 C. water
- 1 C. fresh blueberries
- 1 T. butter

- 1) Lightly grease a 9x13 inch baking dish. Arrange 1/2 the bread cubes in the dish; top with cream cheese cubes. Sprinkle 1 C. blueberries over the cream cheese & top with remaining bread cubes.
- 2) In a large bowl, mix the eggs, milk, vanilla extract & syrup. Pour over the bread cubes. Cover & refrigerate overnight.
- 3) Remove the bread cube mixture from the refrigerator about 30 minutes before baking. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees.
- 4) Cover & bake 30 min. Uncover & continue baking 25 - 30 minutes, until center is firm & surface is lightly browned.
- 5) In a medium saucepan, mix the sugar, cornstarch & water. Bring to a boil. Stirring constantly, cook 3 - 4 minutes. Mix in the remaining 1 C. blueberries. Reduce heat & simmer 10 minutes, until the blueberries burst. Stir in the butter & pour over the baked French toast.
